

>> Basic Line – Borescope flexible

>> *The industrial endoscope
for the quick overview*

>> Basic Line – Borescope flexible

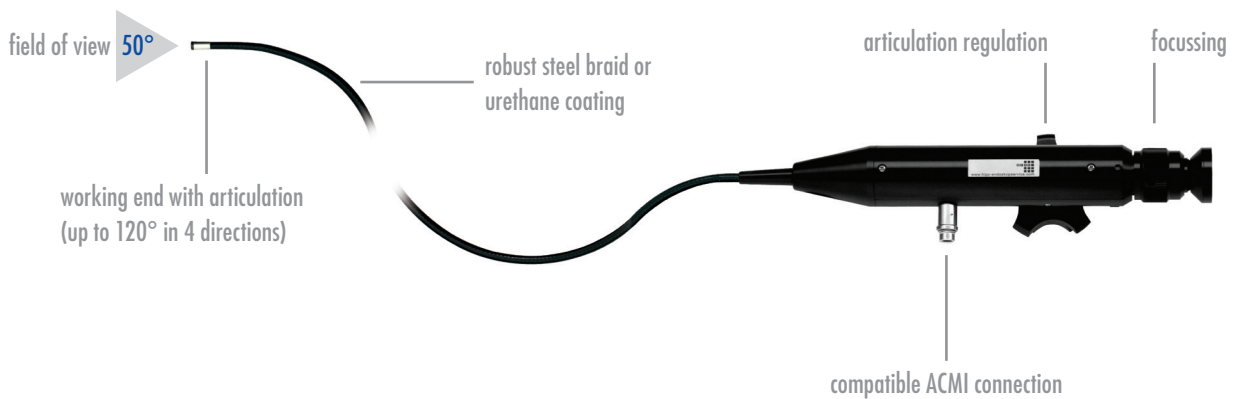

Product profile:

- flexible borescope with different working lengths and diameters
- working end with or without articulation

User-friendliness along with the maximal scope of operation:

- synthetic fibre image bundle
- field of view of 50°
- optimal image quality thanks to focussing
- applicable in liquids up to max. 90°C
- highest compatibility is assured by DIN eyepiece and ACMI connection
- easily transportable thanks to solid carrying case

The Basic Line at one glance:

Areas of application:

For the investigation of restricted, angled hollow spaces through small openings. Areas of application are for example the inspection of defects, material defaults, pipe rehabilitation, manufacturing plants, aviation technology and building industry.

Scope of delivery:

Borescope flexible + solid carrying case

Optional accessories:

side viewing adapter 90°

Service:

The support service for our customers goes without saying also after the purchase. As Europe's leading, manufacturer independent repair service for rigid endoscopes, we offer you service-complete solutions for your whole stock of rigid industrial endoscopes. The advantages are obvious: unrivalled repair times (on average about 10 working days), one key-, manufacturer independent contact as well as a fixed price guarantee.